Wyalusing Township Supervisor Re-elected First Vice President of Pa. State Association of Township Supervisors

EDITORS: A high-resolution photo of Marvin Meteer is available at www.psats.org under "Newsroom" and then "PSATS Board & Staff Photos."

Members of the Pennsylvania State Association of Township Supervisors have re-elected Marvin Meteer, chairman of the board of supervisors for Wyalusing Township, Bradford County, to a one-year term as first vice president.

The election took place during PSATS' 97th Annual Educational Conference and Exhibit Show, held April 14-17 in Hershey. This is the largest municipal event of its kind in the state, with close to 4,000 attendees. The conference attracted township officials from every county in Pennsylvania except Philadelphia, which has no townships.

The first vice president is a member of the association's Executive Board with full voting rights. Meteer also serves as chairman of the board, which is made up of PSATS' five officers, seven Executive Committee members, and the immediate past president. The board is responsible for managing the affairs of the state association and meets frequently throughout the year to conduct business and plan new projects that will benefit member townships.

The Pennsylvania State Association of Township Supervisors represents Pennsylvania's 1,454 townships of the second class and is committed to preserving and strengthening township government and securing greater visibility and involvement for townships in the state and federal political arenas. Townships of the second class cover 95 percent of Pennsylvania's land mass and represent more residents — 5.5 million — than any other type of political subdivision in the commonwealth.

Before being elected to his current post last year, Meteer had served as PSATS' secretary-treasurer, assistant secretary-treasurer, and a member of the association's Executive Committee, as well as its Publications-Public Relations, Resolutions-Legislation, and Audit committees.

Meteer is currently a member of the PSATS Grassroots Advocacy Network, which addresses legislative issues that affect every Pennsylvanian who lives in a township of the second class. He is the board liaison to the Finance Committee, serves on the association's Annual Conference Planning Committee, and is a workshop moderator during PSATS' Annual Educational Conference. He previously was vice chairman of the Executive Board and the board liaison to the Rules and Townships Between 2,000 and 5,000 Population committees.

Meteer, a former secretary-treasurer of the township, is the current president and past vice president of the Bradford County Association of Township Officials. He has served as chair of its Nominations Committee and as a member of the Resolutions Committee. He is also a recipient of the group's President's Award and was named, along with his wife, Maxine, as Wyalusing Community's Outstanding Citizens for 2010. He was also a 2011 recipient of the Governor's Award for Local Government Excellence.

Meteer, the retired owner of the Main Street Sign Company and a retired educator, is treasurer for the Eastern Bradford County Council of Governments. He is also a member of the Greater Wyalusing Valley Chamber of Commerce, the Bradford County Farmland Preservation Board, and the Wyalusing Valley Rainbow Club.

He previously served on the Pennsylvania Pipeline Infrastructure Task Force and chair of the Local Government Work Group. His prior affiliations include president of the Wyalusing Industrial Development Corporation, director and founding board member of Wyalusing Area Ambulance Inc., and a member of the Bradford County Comprehensive Planning Advisory Committee, the Bradford County Economic Development Advisory Board, and the Chesapeake Energy Bradford County Citizens Advisory Panel. He also served on the Council on Finance and Administration for the Wyoming Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Meteer is a lay leader and choir director for the Wyalusing United Methodist Church, as well as lay member, certified lay speaker, and member of the Council on Finance and Administration for the Susquehanna Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. He and his wife, Maxine, live in Wyalusing.
