Bernadette Menendez, secretary-treasurer of Glenburn Township in Lackawanna County, Supervisor Jim Davis, and his children organized and promoted a successful food collection drive for a local church pantry and animal shelter during the pandemic.

South Heidelberg Township organized a food drive with a local food bank on behalf of needy township residents during the pandemic. The drive resulted in the collection of more than 2,500 pounds of food. Pictured left to right are firefighters Joey Smith, Nathan Griffith, Ian Mallery, Steve Noll, and Denise Kohl.

Left and above: Food pantry volunteers at the Summit Township, Erie County, building await clients’ arrival to pick up their food during the pandemic. The volunteers prepacked the food and loaded it into cars, instead of having the recipients come into the building.