The Lower Paxton Township Police Department is grateful to Mission BBQ for their continued support of community programming. Mission BBQ, which has a restaurant in the township, gives back to the department on a regular basis throughout the year.

Girl Scout Katelin Schooley of Lower Paxton Township delivered Girl Scout cookies to the Lower Paxton Township Police Department as a thank-you for all they do. VFW Post 148 purchased and donated the cookies.

Various businesses and residents of Lower Paxton Township in Dauphin County treated their everyday heroes — the police department — to a variety of goodies, useful products, and donations during COVID.

The Lower Paxton Township Police Department is grateful to Mission BBQ for their continued support of community programming. Mission BBQ, which has a restaurant in the township, gives back to the department on a regular basis throughout the year.

State Farm Agent Josh Shoop partnered with Tonino’s Pizza, both in Lower Paxton Township, and made a special delivery to the police department. Officer Steve Wertz is pictured with Shoop.

Lower Paxton Township Police Cpl. Walk Cook accepts a donation from CVS Pharmacy. CVS provided hand sanitizer and cleaning supplies for the police department during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Spring Gate Vineyard organized and delivered a special dinner to the Lower Paxton Township Police Department as a thank-you for working the front lines during COVID-19.