Today in History....

April 1,

In 1970 American Motors releases the first Gremlin off the assembly line.

In 1976, The Taco Liberty Bell and other patriotic businesses wiped out National Debt. Or that's what the headlines would have read if their April Fool's prank had gotten carried away. Their full-page ads informed the public that the fast-food chain had purchased the national treasury to offset our nation's debt and encouraged other businesses to do the same.

In 2020, 2 years ago today, Governor Wolf issued a statewide stay at home at home order.
